

Control software for recorder IN- and MN-series

Main Features

VMS mode for managing and recording many devices

CMS mode for managing a single device

Integration of cameras and recorders IN series

Live image display/search local, NVR, DVR, SD card

Flexible search for AI events

Remote configuration of all integrated IN-Series devices

Management of AI databases, e.g. license plate recognition

Access to device protocols, search, export

Special views for AI applications

Flexible map views with PIP function

User defined views/favorites

Local recording of all sources according to schedules

Specifications

|                           |                                    |
|---------------------------|------------------------------------|
| General                   |                                    |
| Licensing Type            | free use                           |
| Functions                 |                                    |
| Remote Access             | macOS, Microsoft Internet Explorer |
| Product labeling:         |                                    |
| Manufacturer order number | 234989                             |

